

UK LABOUR MARKET STATISTICS

This graphic provides a range of statistics which describe the general state of the UK labour market.

EU Nationals Seeking Work in the UK

EU nationals working in the UK

▼61,000*

EU nationals migrating to the UK down by

▼46,000*

EU nationals emigrating from the UK up by

▲3,000* over the year

Non-EU nationals working in the UK

▲130,000*

Unemployment Levels

Unemployment rate 3.8% the lowest since 1974

Employment Levels and Labour Costs

Employment rate ▲76.1%
This is the joint highest figure on record

Excluding bonuses, average weekly earnings increased by

▲3.3%*

before adjusting for inflation - an increase of ▲1.5%* in real terms

Graduate Market

University applications remains at ▼2% in the UK

Of the 52,000 graduates from relevant STEM subjects in 2016/17, just 700 - ▼1.4% - entered employment in the energy and utilities sector.

Vacancies

There were 846,000 vacancies in the UK

▲28,000* over the year

Skills Shortages

23%* of all UK vacancies were classified as skills shortages.

In the energy and utilities sector,

26%* of vacancies were skills shortages.

*Year on Year figure.

For full list of sources visit:

<http://www.euskills.co.uk/about/our-work/skills-policy/brexit-analysis/>

For more information visit www.euskills.co.uk