Energy & Utility Skills Launch Redeveloped National Water Hygiene Scheme

Energy & Utility Skills has recently launched its redeveloped National Water Hygiene scheme focused on supporting drinking water quality and safety standards, in line with changing regulatory requirements.

The National Water Hygiene scheme – also known as the 'Blue Card' scheme – plays a vital part in promoting water hygiene and protecting public health. Sharing sector best practice, the water industry has worked alongside Energy & Utility Skills to completely redevelop the scheme's design, structure and precise assessment criteria. To find out more about the redeveloped scheme, click below.
