

June 2019

Welcome to this month's Member Insight where we highlight key policy updates and important news from across our sector, including key events and consultations.

The Energy & Utilities Independent Assessment Service (EUIAS), the leading provider of high-quality, end-point assessment, has passed its 1,000th learner on the new English apprenticeship standards.

Jonathan Li from SP Energy Networks formerly worked in the Royal Navy as a Marine Engineer Mechanic. After some time in the windfarm industry, Jonathan underwent a two-year apprenticeship with SP Energy Networks and is now fully qualified as a 'Power Network Craftsperson' after passing his robust end-point assessment with the Energy & Utilities Independent Assessment Service this month.

Find Out More

Policy Updates: June 2019

Apprenticeships and Technical Education Advisory Group focus on T-Levels. To find out more, read and download a copy of this month's key policy updates, click below.

Read More & Download

All our policy updates will be available to download from the members' area on our website. Click here to login.

Strategic Workforce Planning

With an ageing workforce and shortages of technical and engineering-related skills in the labour market, forecasting future demand and supply of talent is one of the most critical strategic challenges facing organisations within the energy and utilities sector today. A longer-term, strategic approach to talent management is required, to make effective and efficient use of all available talent pools. View our new 2019 Strategic Workforce Planning Brochure.

Read More

Power Skills Summit & People in Power Awards 2019

Tickets are now on sale for this year's Power Skills Summit and People in Power Awards. We still have a limited number of sponsorship opportunities available. To find out more and secure your tickets for this year's event please click below.

Book Now

The Institution of Primary and Institution of Secondary Engineers welcomes its first Honorary Fellow from the Energy and Utilities Sector

Nick Ellins, CEO of Energy & Utility Skills is named as its first honorary fellow in the energy & utilities sector. The Institutions, launched at the House of Lords on May 17, set out to continue the work of Dr Susan Scurlock MBE, whose Primary Engineer organisation currently utilises a range of programmes to engage with over 60,000 pupils across the UK and over 4,000 teachers from primary schools upwards.

Read More

Procurement Skills Accord: Sign Up Now Open

Sector employers are being encouraged to consider signing up to an initiative that has helped leading UK gas, power, water and waste companies drive investment in training and skills, in areas where the sector needs them most; through procurement. We are now welcoming sign ups for the 2019/20 Procurement Skills Accord. Click below to find out more.

Read More

LinkedIn Members' Group

Join our Members' LinkedIn group to have instant access to news, policy updates, events and awards. Also have your say by contributing to discussions and be given first access to new content. The LinkedIn group is updated regularly, to join click below.

Join Group

Stay Informed

All our latest news and any updates that may be essential to our members will also be posted across our social media channels. Click below to follow us on Twitter and LinkedIn. If you have any content suggestions for this communication, feedback is welcome by email. Click the icon below to send us a message.

